Idology in Transcultural Perspective

Anthropological Investigations of Popular Idolatry

Springer Nature This edited volume expands on what Aoyagi Hiroshi intended in the first decade of the new millennium to establish as a subfield of symbolic anthropology called "idology." It brings together case studies of popular idolatry in Japan, but goes further to provide a transcultural perspective to guide anthropological investigations in different places and times. In proposing an integrated paradigm for the growing body of literature on idols, the volume redirects recurrent questions to more fundamental points of sociocultural inquiry. Contributions from scholars conducting ethnographic fieldwork, as well as those engaged in theoretical and historical analyses, facilitate comparative reading and critical thought. Exceeding a narrow focus on human idols, the chapters shed new light on virtual idols and YouTubers, cartoon characters and voices, robot idols and cybernetic systems. Science and technology studies thus comes together with theories of animation and anthropological work on life in more-than-human worlds.

The Garden of Words

Kodansha Comics Can a poem save your life? Words are powerful. Insults and rumors can derail a career; a bit of encouragement can give someone the strength to pursue their dreams. When a high school boy skipping class to sketch shoe designs and a taciturn woman drinking a morning beer meet in a Tokyo park, they say little, but the woman bids farewell with an ancient tanka poem. Will the boy figure out the poem's meaning—and its corresponding response—before it's too late?

Panda Love

The Secret Lives of Pandas

Hardie Grant Panda Love is a collection of incredible images of these gentle giants. Ami Vitale's stunning photographs, taken on location in China, document the efforts to breed pandas and release them back into the wild. Ami was given unprecedented access to the pandas and her photos give an amazing insight into the bears' lives in both the sanctuaries and their natural habitat. Fluffy panda cubs tumble out of baskets and play hide-and-seek with their carers, while the adult pandas curiously explore the forest and climb trees. The giant panda is everyone's favorite bamboo-munching bear. China may be on its way to successfully saving its most famous ambassador, and Panda Love lovingly documents the process of putting the wild back into an icon.

Love Lives Here

Finding What You Need in a World Telling You What You Want

B&H Publishing Group Love Lives Here is a collection of stories that include the ways Maria and her husband, Bob, navigated family their way, without clear instructions or a road map. It's about what they learned to make their lives meaningful and whimsical and how they created a space for their family to grow together while they reached outward.

The Invisible Thread

I Married an Ex-Wise Guy

Our Lives, Love and His Death Together

Life Rich Publishing The book is written in a series of memory-lane vignettes depicting memories of her life with an ex-wise guy. The book starts at the end of the story and through the vignettes of the ups and downs of living with an ex-wise guy and how a person's past can follow them wherever they go. The story ends where it started. The love story between the couple, who met later in life, is dramatic and quite heated. The depiction of how hospice helped her through her husband's dying process was a dramatic life-learning situation.

Walking on Sunshine

Sixteen Years of Love, Diabetes Rehabilitation to Live Well, and Divine Transformations

Radiant Heart Press Author Sheryl Hill's 16-year-old son, Tyler Hill, died a preventable death on a People to People Student Ambassador Trip to Japan in 2007. This is his story, as well as that of his family and friends. Divine transformation follows the author and her family's journey through grief, and spiritual healing. Tyler lived an exceptional life with diabetes thanks to Functional Insulin Treatment (FIT). Walking on Sunshine is a compelling collection of heartrending and honest vignettes of life after death, evidence that love never dies, and that energy (NRG) cannot be created or destroyed, only transformed.
