TRAVEL ACTIVITIES IN A BINDER

MADE AT HOME

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform "Are we there yet?" How many times have parents heard this refrain from the kids, even before the car was out of the driveway? Kids seem to have difficulty understanding two things about traveling: time and distance. That's why parents so often hear, "How long will it take?" and "How far are we going? In addition to the classic of all time, "Are we there yet?" Traveling with kids can make a trip sometimes longer - for everyone! But do not worry; a solution is here from Activity Bags!!! Travel Activities in a Binder can be "Made at Home". Once assembled, all the activities and games come with instructions and information and require no more than a dry erase marker and eraser (which are kept in the binder!). Some of the activities will be old favorites that maybe the kids have forgotten about, and some new, updated ones. All the activities are easy to learn and geared for elementary age! The binder is very easy to assemble, with instructions in the book. May your next trip be fun, as you look forward to keeping your travelers occupied and learning at the same time. Read what others are saying about Travel Games in a Binder. Having the Travel Activities in a Binder is great for the car but we can use it while waiting at sporting events, dance class, music class, etc. The binder is so versatile! ~ Bronwyn Lit will be great to have something for the kids to do in the car verses watching movies! ~Michelle I know my boys will enjoy the Activities while I enjoy the peace in the car. ~ Megan A. Travel Activities in a Binder is great for our family because it is ready to go in a moment's notice! They are also easy to pack and keep organized! ~ Kimberly T. Travel Activities in a Binder is very versatile. We can take our binders on the road, to a hotel, restaurant, appointments and even camping! ~ Lisa W. This is a GREAT idea for trips and will keep the kids and parents interacting while in the car as opposed to popping in a DVD or electric game to keep the kids active. ~ Deborah B. We are so excited to have Traveling Activities to go! This is an excellent idea! ~ Lori G. We fit all our Travel Activity supplies into the zipper pouch, which goes into the travel binder. Over 40 fun travel activities (like tic-tac-toe above) are included in the book. More activities include ad libs, hangman, counting cows, road sign bingo, mazes, the license plate game, and so much more! Our kids have been having so much FUN with the travel binders! They've even been playing them at home! Travel Activities in a Binder provide a whole host of activities that a child can complete inside a binder using only a dry erase marker and a piece of fabric to be used as an eraser. These are great for times when you might be waiting at a doctor's office or other appointment, or when traveling in your vehicle. I gave the Travel Activities Binder to my daughter when she had to wait by herself at bell choir rehearsal. The book was a big hit instantly. She loved the variety of activities and spent the entire hour trying new things. Then I took the book back, and kept it for the next time we had to wait somewhere. It works well traveling or for while kids are waiting.

21 - BUILDING TOMORROW AS YOUNG ADULTS

iUniverse If there is one thing that is certain for all young adults today, it is that tomorrow brings uncertainty. With uncertainty comes a challenge and sometimes fear. But it also presents an opportunity, for each and every young adult growing up today to sculpt themselves into someone who can not only change tomorrow, but benefit it for the better. The author of "21 Building Tomorrow as Young Adults" knows this reality all too well because he is, as he writes this book, a 21-year-old young adult himself. In this book, he brings to the table 21 Pillars that can help young adults, not only in their daily lives, but for the future as well. With each Pillar comes Ivans personal experience with that theme, and his own personal stories that help readers relate. As todays generation of young adults often learn by storytelling, "21 Building Tomorrow as Young Adults" relates to that trend, and gives each and every person a chance to relate and share themselves with these themes. Tomorrow will not happen to each of us alone, so we are all going to have to do this together; one day at a time.
